

Horse quotes & Poetry

Through his mane and tail the high wind signs, fanning the hairs, who wave like feather'd wings.

William Shakespeare

Riding a horse is not a gentle hobby,
to be picked up and laid down like a game of Solitaire.
It is a grand passion.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

To ride a horse is to ride the sky.

Unknown

The horse, the horse!
The symbol of surging potency and power of movement, of action, in man.

D.H. Lawrence

His mane is like a river flowing,
And his eyes like embers glowing.
In the darkness of the night,
And his pace as swift as light.

Bryan Waller Proctor, The Blood Horse

The wind of heaven is that which blows between a horse's ears.

Arabian proverb

He trots the air.
The earth sings when he touches it.

William Shakespeare, Henry V

There is no secret so close as that between a rider and his horse.

Robert S. Surtees

They say princes learn no art truly, but the art of HORSEMANSHIP.
The reason is, the brave beast is no flatterer.
He will throw a prince as soon as his groom.

Ben Jonson

As distance shows a horse's strength, so time reveals a persons heart.

Chinese proverb

To turn and wind a fiery Pegasus,
And witch the world with noble horsemanship.

William Shakespeare, Henry V
